The University of Toledo

The University of Toledo was begun in 1872 in the form of a gift of land by Mr. and Mrs. Jesup W. Scott. By 1875 the Toledo University of Arts and Trades, as it was then called, was ready to begin its first classes. The original gift of 155 acres of land remained University property, as it is to this day, but, because of a lack of facilities on the Scott property, these first classes were conducted in the basement of a Madison Avenue church. By 1878 the University was forced to close because of financial difficulties, but this was a relatively short-lived delay. In 1883 the first class was graduated.

The need for additional funds was still evident, and to meet the necessity, the Toledo University was transformed into a municipal institution in 1884. Classes were conducted in various buildings over a period of the next few decades. During this period of transiency, a graduate program was established, awarding its first degrees in 1913. In 1921 the name was changed to the University of the City of Toledo. Another move was made in 1922 when operations were shifted to a newly constructed building located on the original Scott property. However, by 1928 the press for additional space was once again felt. An extensive campaign by students and alumni alike led to the construction of University Hall on the present TU campus.

University Hall was occupied in 1931, while construction projects added over a dozen more buildings in the years following. Dormitories, a library, field house, and a football stadium supplemented the growing university community. Since 1959 alone, seven new structures have been added to the campus, with the eighth now under construction. The Student Union was erected in 1959 to accommodate non-academic activities. In 1960 the College of Engineering moved into its new quarters in the Engineering Science building. Snyder Memorial classroom building became the home of the College of Education in 1963, as well as relieving University Hall by providing greatly needed classroom facilities. In 1963 Women's housing facilities were increased by an addition to MacKinnon Hall, followed by the construction of Carter Hall West in 1964 and Carter Hall East in 1965, both of which are men's residence halls. Ritter Planetarium and Observatory provides excellent facilities for the study of the universe and the science of astronomy. The year 1967 will witness the completion of the Biology and Chemistry building, the newest addition to our rapidly growing institution.

Physical growth is essential to an expanding institution; however, physical growth is impossible and unnecessary without academic growth. The College of Arts and Sciences was the first to be established in 1909. This was followed by the college of Education in 1916. For the next several years, individual departments were being established within the College of Arts and Sciences which were later to become individual colleges within the University. The first to be established was the College of Business Administration, followed by the College of Engineering in 1931, the Colleges of Law and Pharmacy in 1937, and the University Community and Technical College in 1963, as it was reorganized from the Junior College, begun in 1938, and the Technical Institute, begun in 1957.

And in several years, as fate may have it, the site of the future home of the UCATC will be Scott Park, a gift which gave birth to TU nearly 100 years ago.

The College of Arts and Sciences is approaching its sixtieth year of continuous, autonomous existence within the university. Starting with a full-time faculty of five in 1909, its ranks have swelled to over 200 at the present time.

The continuing growth and development of the college in more recent years is reflected in the expansion and enrichment of its programs. Students from all colleges come into contact with the college's faculty since Arts and Sciences programs overlap into many other fields. Notable recent growth is reflected in the establishment of an Honors Program, a program in Integrated Liberal Education, and the introduction of majors in such fields as geology, geography, and the classics.

The educational programs offered by the College of Business Administration have two major objectives: (1) To encourage every student to enjoy a fuller, richer and more satisfying life, both as an individual and as a responsible citizen of his community and country; and (2) to prepare students for successful careers in all phases of business activity.

In order to achieve these objectives, the college provides undergraduate students with a diversified yet flexible program. On the one hand, they obtain a broad foundation in the liberal arts and science; on the other hand, they receive a basic background in the various fields of business administration and an opportunity for detailed learning in one field of interest of their choice.

The College of Education serves the unique function of educating personnel for the public schools so that they may develop in young people those skills necessary for the preservation and extension of the democratic way of life.

The student in the College of Education receives a liberal education as well as a concentrated study in his chosen field. The college seeks to prepare prospective teachers and educational specialists with a commitment to free public education, an understanding of the fundamental problems of education, and an attitude conducive to continued intellectual and professional growth. In addition, the college provides many research, counseling and service projects for the educational community.

The programs offered by the College of Engineering are planned to prepare students to fit into present day industrial and community life. This is accomplished by offering curricula which are strong in fundamentals, yet lead to specialization in the Junior and Senior years, and maintain a balance among humanistic-social subjects, the physical sciences, and the professional engineering courses.

Over 60% of the work is common to all curricula. The remainder depends on the curriculum selected by the student, and permits specialization in the fields of Chemical, Civil, Electrical, Industrial, and Mechanical Engineering and Engineering Physics. The student may therefore develop along his line of major interest.

The ever increasing demands of a growing society reverberate in the College of Law. The University of Toledo College of Law is continually expanding its educational facilities and services. More than two hundred students are enrolled in day and evening sessions. The students must achieve high standards in liberal arts or business courses to continue for the Law Degree at the graduate level. In order to integrate practical experiences into the students' law education, the College has set up the Bail-Bond Project in conjunction with the Toledo Bar Association. An extensive program of seminars and speakers is scheduled throughout the semester.

The facilities of the College will be changing as the enrollment increases, starting with the Law College Building.

It is the specific purpose of the College of Pharmacy to train its students in the skills of pharmacology. The pharmacist must attain a high degree of competency in the skills of his profession; he must have obtained more scientific and technical knowledge than he will use in his everyday professional activities because he must look and go forward in the future; he must receive training beyond his own field of endeavor because he must be a citizen and make his contribution to society.

Because pharmacology is an ever-expanding field in this era of medical and technical advancement. The College of Pharmacy has designed its five year program to give its students a well-rounded liberal arts education as well as specialized training needed by the pharmacist.

The services offered by the University Community and Technical College are designed to complement those offered by the other colleges at TU. During 1964-1965 the college had more than 1600 day and evening students enrolled in its various courses. It had more graduates in its last two years than in its first 20 years combined. The college realizes that education can provide the individual with the resources he needs to pursue his own education throughout his lifetime. The college assists its students in becoming qualified to obtain employment in technical or semi-professional occupations such as draftsmen, laboratory assistants, and research aids. The aim of the UCATC is to be alert in serving the social, economic, and cultural needs of the Northwestern Ohio community.

Football

Unbelievable! Had our opponents end zone been the twenty yard line we would have been the Mid-American champs. The Toledo football squad finished their 1966 season with a 2-7-1 record. The Rockets played good, hard football, and with a twist of fate this record would have been reversed. The type of football played by the Rockets was exemplified by an all time attendance season. With twenty-eight lettermen returning and a good nucleus from the Freshman squad, Coach Lauterbur and his staff are optimistic about next season.

Once again Frank Lauterbur's ability to recruit and Jim Flynn's direction resulted in a winning freshman team. Quarterback Steve Jones, voted the most valuable player, led the freshmen to a 4—3 season. This team should provide a strong nucleus for Lauterbur's varsity next season.

The Dancing Rock-ets . . .

For the sixth successive season the Dancing Rock-ets labored three lunch hours each week from October through early March to provide unique entertainment for University of Toledo students, faculty and alumni at selected home basketball games. As usual, their originally choreographed dance routines met with the enthusiastic approval of Field House audiences. Thirty-two coeds were chosen to strive for Rock-et goals: "... to be a part of a successful organization, to achieve poise and confidence through public performance, and to contribute something personal to the University of Toledo ..." Selection was based on personal appearance and dancing ability. The Alumni Association furnished financial assistance to buy the Rock-ets' first set of new costumes in five years. The Daryl Jervis Studios continued to provide instruction as a public service to the University.

Success marked every phase of this years tennis team. A season highlighted by fifteen victories resulted in first place honors in the Mid-American Conference. Five singles and three doubles titles were netted by members of the 1966 squad. With four returning champions and a strong sophomore nucleus, prospects are bright for Coach Eisner and the '67 season.

Alpha Epsilon Pi was nationally founded at New York University in 1913. The Upsilon Tau chapter was established at the University of Toledo in 1950. The fraternity colors are blue and gold.

The brothers of A.E.Pi once again had a very successful year as Mort and Bill put together a fine social calendar highlighted by pajama, hobo, and toga parties.

On campus A.E.Pi's are represented in Student Senate, Student Union Board, the Blockhouse and various other Greek committees.

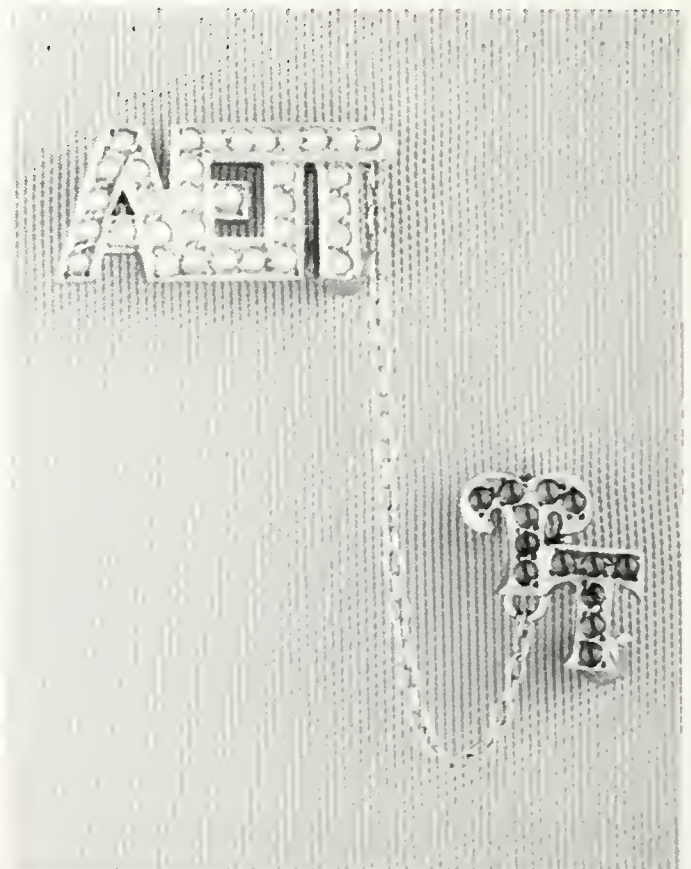

"Ziggy" finally found out who that other woman was and surfer Jeff returned. The R.M. with his instant retort found a welcome place on the board. Dorian went hoarse trying to keep the meetings in order, and brother Dolins had an expression for everything.

The year was climaxed by a spring weekend which was one of the finest in our history. As the brothers look back, it was a wonderful and successful year for the men of Alpha Epsilon Pi.

Alpha Omicron Pi was nationally founded in 1897 at Bernard College in New York. Locally, Alpha Omicron Pi was formed on November 11, 1944. The sorority color is cardinal. AOPi's are extremely active on the campus and members may be found in Student Senate, the BLOCK-HOUSE, the Collegian, Student Union Board, and Y.W.C.A.

Each year the AOPi's traditionally have two formals, winter and spring, and climaxing the season is the orphan party with Theta Chi fraternity. Service projects include the Frontier Nursing Service, established as the national philanthropic event and strongly supported by the sisters of Theta Psi chapter.

Each year AOPi's traditionally award a trophy for the best fraternity of the year. WUS Carnival, a major success, saw the advent of the AOPi jail and a great deal of money was collected for charity.

December 6, 1845 marks the national beginning of Alpha Sigma Phi, tenth oldest in the nation. Locally, Alpha Sigma Phi was formed in 1924, and is the oldest national fraternity on campus. The fraternity colors are cardinal and stone.

Brotherhood and unity marks the success of Alpha Sigma Phi as they continually capture the all sports trophy for I.F.C. competition. On campus Alpha Sigma Phi is represented in Student Senate, Student Union Board, Student Body Government, Dorm administration, and the Blockhouse. Alpha Sigma Phi was the only fraternity which had two brothers tapped for Blue Key at Winter Formal. Socially, Alpha Sig parties are characterized as best and feature such events as the Hell's Angel's party, Arabian Knights party, and spring and winter formals; to name a few. Community service is another feature and each year the brothers sponsor the orphan's party, the Good-Will clothing drive, and aids the Leukemia Society.

OMEGA

Sandy Williams
President

On October 15, 1885, Alpha Chi Omega was founded nationally. At the University of Toledo, a chapter was formed in 1945. The sorority colors are scarlet and olive green.

This year has proven very eventful for the Beta Omega chapter. Last spring they held the quite successful Computer Dance, which has so far yielded two engagements, then, later on in the year, they placed second in Songfest. For Homecoming, they took first place sorority float and second place over-all float. They took first place booth for WUS Carnival.

The sisters are proud of Annette Sowinski for reigning as Pershing Rifles Captain and Katie Streicher as a class officer and an SAE "Little Sister of Minerva". They are also proud of Rustie Brandman, Rosemarie Luciannin, and Pam Farley who are not only members of Peppers but who have been elected to Who's Who.

Other Fall activities included the annual Dad's Night, Backwards Party, Big-Little Sis Christmas Party, and Winter Formal.

The badge of the fraternity, gold crescent moon framing three jeweled stars, symbolizes to each wearer the ideals and friendship found as a sister in Delta Delta Delta. Phi Alpha chapter has many traditional activities. They open the year with the back-to-school roast and close it with the pansy breakfast. During the year, the social calendar is filled with the Mother-Daughter Tea, Big and Little Sis Christmas party, Founders Day Banquet, All-Sorority Dessert, and, of course, formals, casual parties, and cottage.

Zeta Tau Alpha was founded October 15, 1898 at Longwood College. Gamma Eta, the 88th chapter, was established at the University of Toledo on November 15, 1946. Zeta's colors are turquoise blue and steel gray. The highlight of the spring of 1966 was Greek Week, and Zetas were especially proud to have their own Sharon Klump reigning as Queen. After exams and recovering at cottage, six sisters attended the biennial convention which was held in Houston, Texas. The representatives of Gamma Eta chapter were presented with a Scholarship plaque, signifying the placing first for two consecutive semesters.

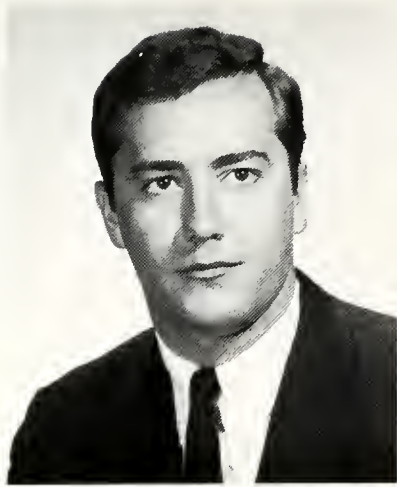

The remainder of the summer was taken up with a Big and Little Sis party, summer initiation, swim parties, meetings, and rush planning. Consequently, fall Rush brought 19 new pledges. Fall activities included a hayride, Dad-Daughter Date Night, and a caroling party at Christmas.

Theta Chi Fraternity was founded at Norwiche University in 1959. Locally, Theta Chi was established at the University of Toledo on May 20, 1950. The fraternity colors are military red and white.

Fun kings of the campus, the collegiate clannists, Theta Chi stands alone as the only true social fraternity. To call them racketeers seems harsh, yet the "cognomen" can be alleviated by saying that they are racketeers in another sense of the word. Racketeers in the sense that they are the noisiest, most fun-loving, and most joyful group at the University. What those various little clans are to Oxford and Harvard, Theta Chi is to the University of Toledo.

Although Theta Chi seems to be strictly a social fraternity, they are represented in several student activities at the University.

University students and others pass the word that Theta Chi is a fraternity in the true meaning of the word.

Kappa Alpha Psi was founded on January 5, 1911 at the University of Indiana. In 1946 the Beta Zeta chapter was established at the University of Toledo. The fraternity colors are crimson and white.

Because of the great number of losses during the Korean War, the Beta Zeta chapter was forced to become inactive until December of 1959.

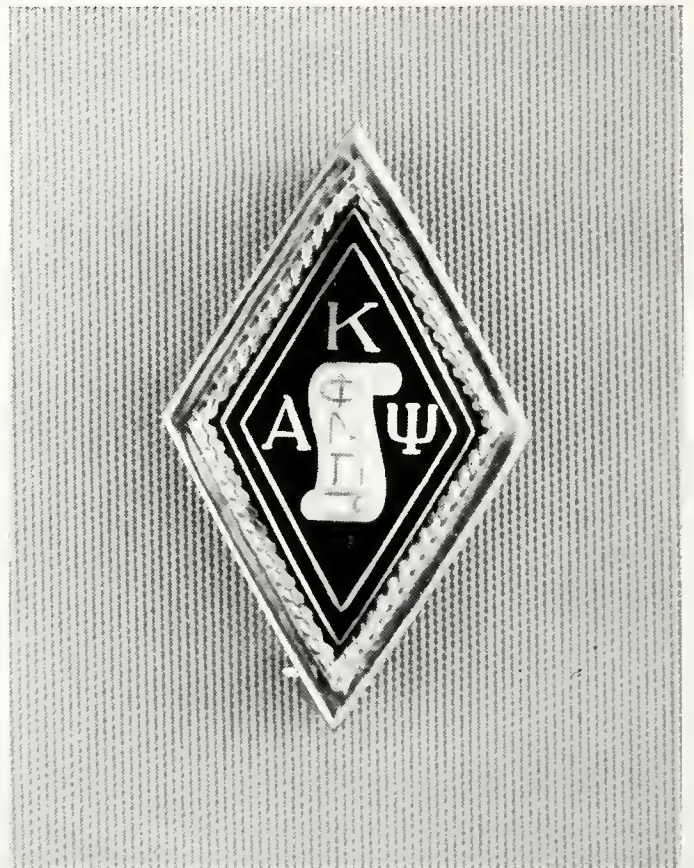

The "Kappa's" are recognized and participate in all I.F.C. competition, and the bonds of brotherhood strengthen their competitive spirit. Highlights of the year include the Crimson and White Formal and the Kappa Color Day.

The brothers of Kappa Alpha Psi take pride in the fact that they are the best singers on campus, and the active—alumni basketball game is one of their biggest events.

DELTA

Kappa Delta Sorority was nationally founded at Longwood college in 1847. Locally, Kappa Delta was formed in 1946. The sorority colors are olive green and white.

Spring and fall semesters were best characterized by enthusiasm and success. Kappa Delta's became president of Y.W.C.A., Panhellenic Council, and Rock-ets. Co-Chairmen for Greek Week and W.U.S. Carnival were also K.D.'s. The Beta Nu chapter also received five trophies.

Organization and hard work resulted in fall rush program of twenty-three pledges, the largest pledge class. Founder's Day was observed with the wearing of white roses and a banquet with Beta Mu's from Bowling Green. A round of fraternity parties, soup and steak dinners, and other activities kept the KD sisters busy.

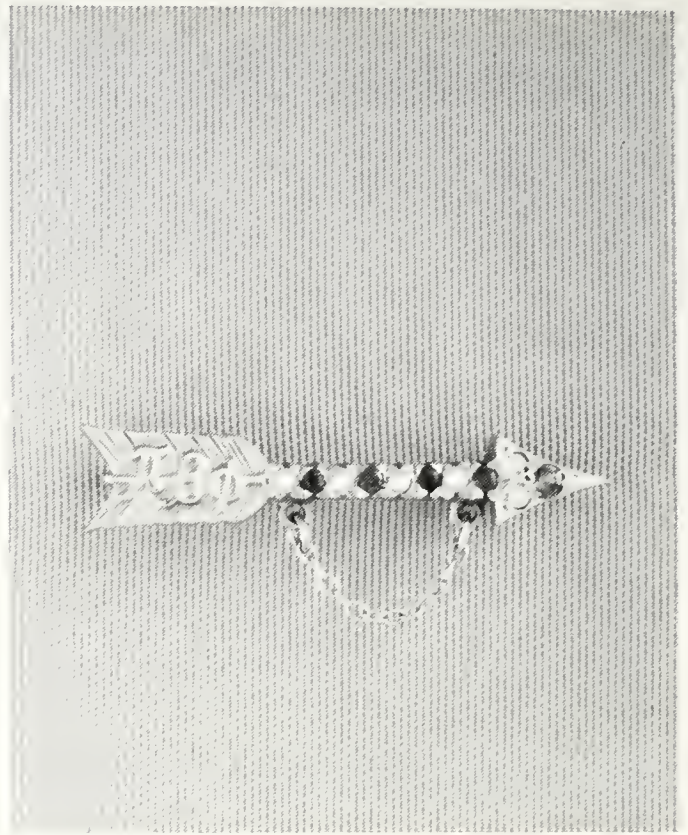

KD Day was instituted this spring and will become a tradition of the sorority. An athletic pie social, senior picnic, and mother-daughter tea are also planned. The semester will conclude with the formal dance.

Debbie Flath
President

Pi Beta Phi was founded nationally at Monmouth in Illinois on April 28, 1867. Locally, at the University of Toledo, the sorority was formed in 1945. Pi Phi's colors are wine and silver blue.

Under the able leadership of Debbie Flath, the rushing season was brought to a satisfying close with the Pi Phi's bagging some prize catches. The chapter thusly charged with enthusiasm, surged ahead to spark the 1966 Homecoming with an overabundance of spirit. They captured the first place victory in the Sigma Alpha Epsilon Olympics for the third year in a row.

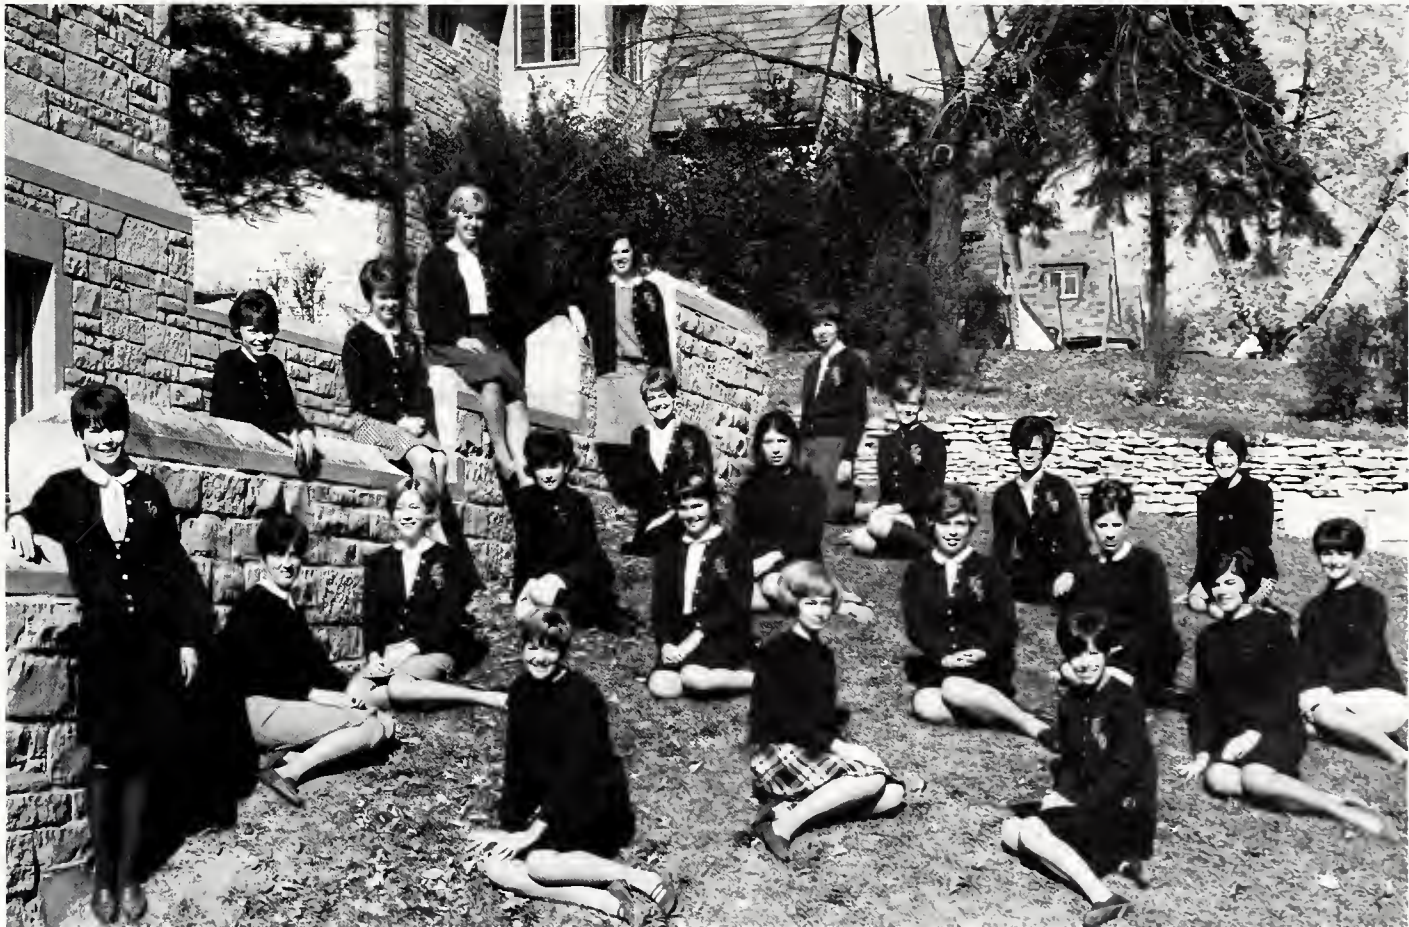

Despite the rude awakening that the pledges gave the actives at 5:30 one Saturday morning, "Big Sisters" were given to the pledges. The year of 1966 was brought to an exciting close with the Winter Formal, held at Northwood Villa.

On April 28, they will celebrate their hundredth anniversary with a Chicago convention.

Pi Kappa Alpha is the oldest fraternity at the University of Toledo, it was founded in 1914. It affiliated with the national Phi Kappa Alpha fraternity in 1955. The national fraternity is one of the top ten fraternities in the country with over 140 chapters. The fraternity colors are garnet and gold.

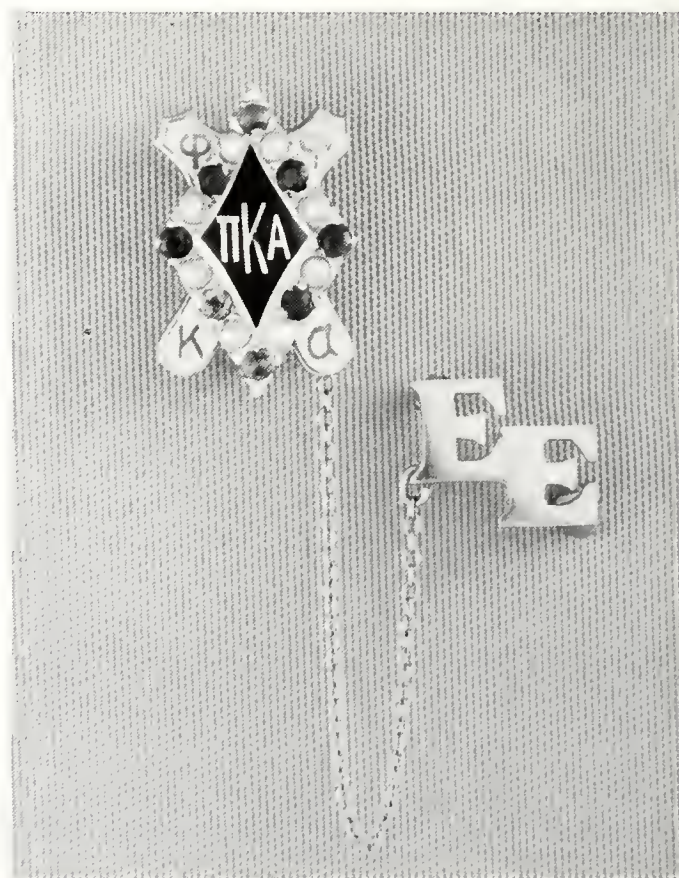

Major social events include the annual spring and winter formals, Founder's Day Banquet, and an Orphan's party. Liberally sprinkled in between these major activities are numerous sorority, active-alumni parties, and date parties.

The distinctive mark of the "PiKes" is the red fire engine which adds enjoyment to T.U. rallies and parades.

Last year the fraternity led all T.U. and district fraternities in scholarship. The chapter also won third place in the over-all competition for Homecoming floats.

The new house at 1795 Bancroft promises additional enjoyment for the men of Pi Kappa Alpha.

Pi Kappa Phi fraternity was nationally founded at Charleston University on December 10, 1904. Locally, the fraternity was established on December 8, 1951. The fraternity colors are white and gold.

Although "September" means back to school, the brothers of Pi Kappa Phi believe that "all work and no play . . . etc." and therefore they release their tensions through parties. Numerous stag and drag parties highlighted the year beginning with the annual corn roast, and progressing through the float parties, the cousino party, and the Christmas Formal at the Parkcrest Hotel.

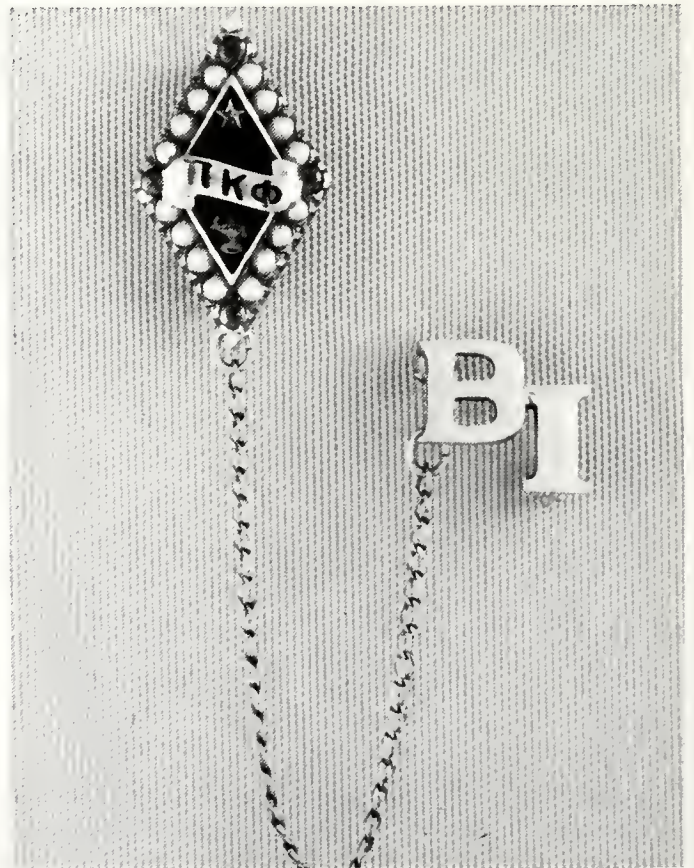

Participation in the Community Club Awards proved to be very successful and Founder's Day party at Anderson's Hertiage was a great success.

At the crowning of the Carnation Queen at the Rose Ball in June, the brothers will conclude their year and begin plans for cottage. A surprise national meeting at the Fountainbleau in Miami, Florida, will provide an unexpected vacation.

Fraternalism is synonymous with brotherhood, and true brotherhood is the watchword of Sigma Alpha Mu. Members of this organization are dedicated young men participating in all phases of campus life from social functions to community service projects.

Highlights of the past year include Samie's sponsorship of the ALSAC drive which was so successful that it has been selected as their national fraternity project.

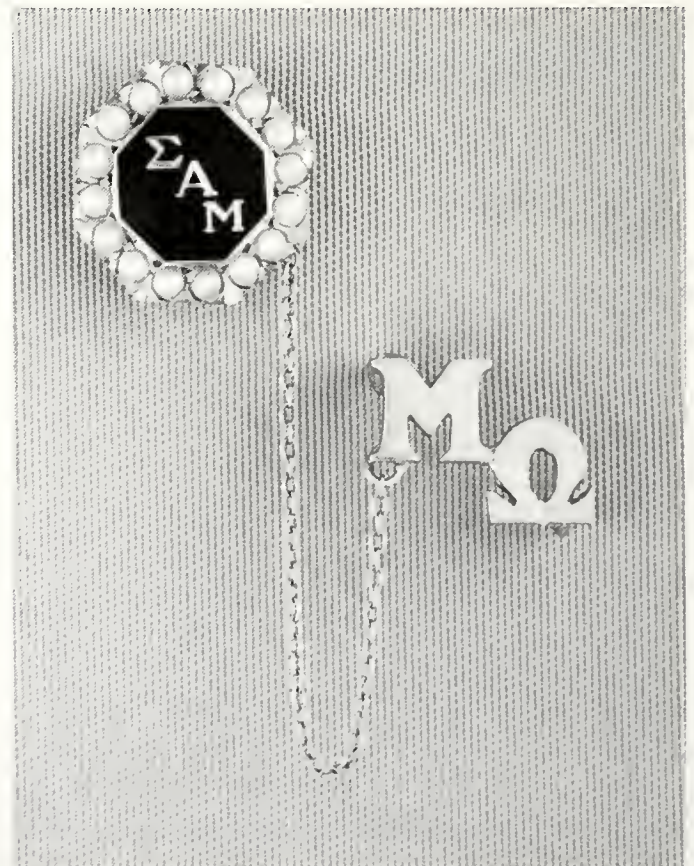

In sport competition Sigma Alpha Mu finished in the top four spots in every major sport sponsored by I.F.C.

Sigma Alpha Mu uses these various activities to weld men and build successful futures. Long lists of successful alumni prove that Samie has succeeded in its task.

As Sigma Delta Tau celebrates its fiftieth anniversary of its national beginning at Cornell University, Alpha Omega chapter begins its third year at the University of Toledo. The sorority colors are cafe au lait and old blue.

The "Sig Delts" were nationally honored at the golden anniversary convention when they won first place in the skit and scholarship competition. On campus, Sig Delts continue their tradition of monthly dinners in their apartment. The spring formal marked another highlight in a fun-filled social year highlighted with their attendance at the TU Hockey Night.

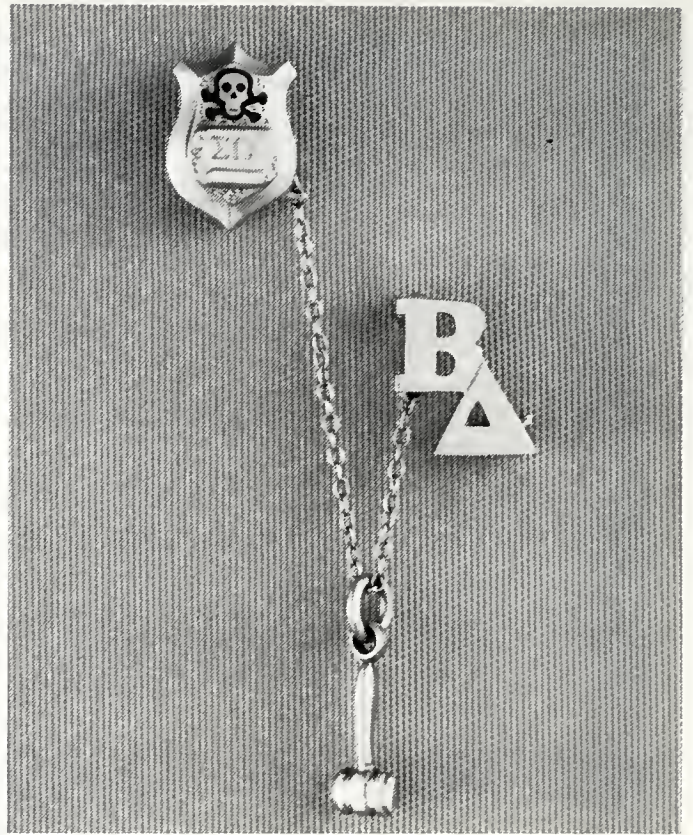

Philanthropy has its place too. The SDT's led a group of under-privileged children on a campus tour with a time out for bowling and a dinner in the Student Union. Draft dodgers found refuge in the SDT marriage booth at the WUS Carnival. Car washes and shoe shines are conducted periodically to raise money.

Sigma Tau is a local fraternity at the University of Toledo and was established in 1964. The fraternity colors are brown and gold.

In its second year on campus the brothers of Sigma Tau saw the culmination of many of their goals. A stereo sound system was completed and provides the brothers and their dates with many hours of entertainment. A popcorn and tinker toy party are examples of the unique type of functions the fraternity is known for. This year will include a funeral party, the Christmas and New Year's parties, and numerous post-game get togethers.

Even though the chapter is still in its growing stages, the brothers participate in I.F.C. competition and have captured first place in the horseshoe competition. Sigma Tau also won first place for the best decorated car in the Homecoming parade. Warm weather promises picnics, beach parties, and other activities.

Tau Kappa Epsilon, the largest national fraternity, was founded in 1899 at Illinois Western University. The local T.K.E.'s were formed at the University of Toledo in 1950. The fraternity colors are cherry and gray.

Socially, T.K.E.'s are active with a spring and winter formal, and the Festival of the Red Carnation celebrating Founder's Day.

For the eighth straight year Tau Kappa Epsilon has placed in Homecoming float competition. The highlight of the year was T.K.E.'s successful sponsoring of the Lettermen at the University Field House. A long and united promotion campaign resulted in a turn-away crowd of over two thousand.

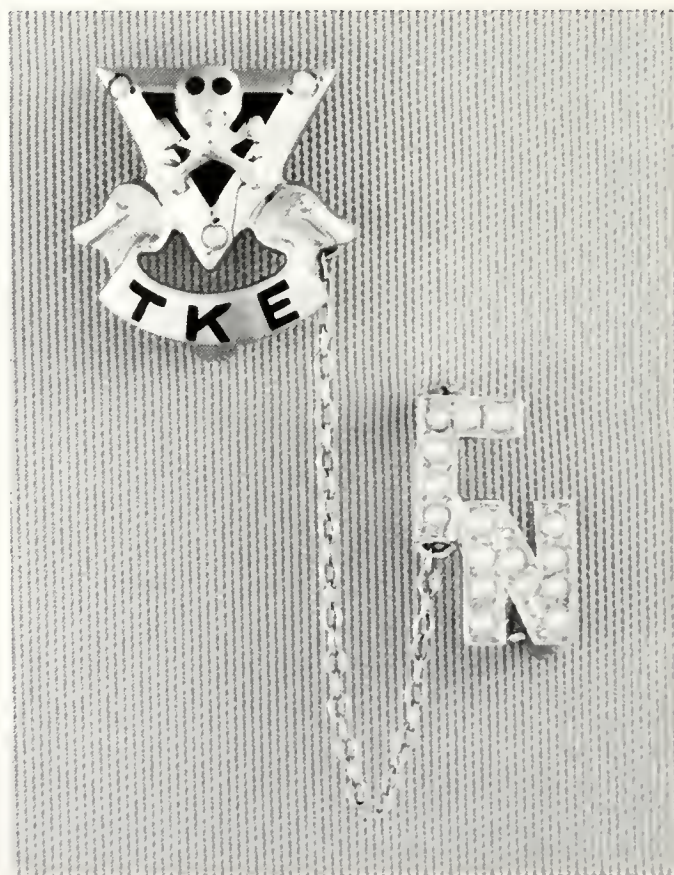

On campus, Tau Kappa Epsilon is represented in all major campus organizations, and T.K.E.'s had the most men tapped for Who's Who.

The coming year promises to be bigger and better as the men prepare to host the T.K.E. leadership conference.

Phi Kappa Psi was nationally founded on February 19, 1852. Ohio Eta chapter was formed at the University of Toledo on October 21, 1950. The fraternity colors are hunter green and cardinal.

The brothers of Ohio Eta chapter have enjoyed another very active year and in their traditional manner of conservatism initiated two classes of select men.

On the social level the brothers were busy with a roaring twenties party and a hobo party. The advent of the T.G.I.F. parties added several hours of social enjoyment with campus sororities. Other major activities include a winter formal, the orphan's party, spring formal, and for the second straight year the chapter hosted the Ohio Phi Psi basketball tournament.

This year the brothers excelled in scholarship and took first place in Men's Songfest competition. Our attitude is reflected by our yell: "high high high, Phi Kappa Psi, live ever, die never, Phi Kappa Psi."

Dana Corporation, one of the world's largest independent manufacturers serving the transportation industry exclusively, has long had an interest in science and engineering. It was in support of this interest that Charles A. Dana, retired chairman of the Dana Corporation board of directors, presented to the University of Toledo, through the Dana Foundation, a "challenge" gift toward the construction of the University's Engineering-Science Building. And it was in recognition of his gift that the auditorium-lecture hall of the building was named in his honor.

Creating New Products and Technology for Tomorrow

Our highly creative research and development people can't get their minds off tomorrow.

And that's all to the good.

For...in tomorrow's world, products and technology as yet unborn will be needed to keep things humming. And from the thinking, the probing, the testing our people in research and development are doing today, will come new products and technology to satisfy tomorrow's needs.

Their work encompasses many fields, many disciplines. Some you should know about are weighing equipment and systems, data processing, materials handling, instrumentation and machinery for restaurant kitchens and food stores.

The assignments are challenging. And the opportunities for talented people...in all areas of Toledo Scale...are virtually unlimited.

BLOCKHOUSE

THE UNIVERSITY OF TOLEDO

TOLEDO 6, OHIO

From the Desk of the Editor:

During the last three hundred days, we have been engaged in the task of constructing a yearbook. It has been a long and deliberate process. We were guided by the standard John Winthrop set before his shipmates on the flagship Arbella: "We must always consider that we shall be as a city upon a hill - the eyes of all people are upon us".

This year the eyes of all people were truly upon us for the 1967 BLOCKHOUSE is the largest, the most complex, the most comprehensive, and the most expensive book in our yearbook's long history. We did not shrink from this responsibility - we welcomed it!

Let me here pay tribute to members of my staff. First, they were truly people of courage, the courage to stand up to one's adversaries, to stand up to, when necessary, one's associates, the courage to resist public pressure as well as private sacrifices. Second, they were people of judgment, with perceptive judgment of the future as well as the past, of our own mistakes as well as the mistakes of others, with enough wisdom to know what we did not know, and enough candor to admit it. Third, they were people of integrity, people who never ran out of either the principles in which we believed nor the people who believed in us, people for whom neither financial gain nor political ambition could ever divert from the fulfillment of their sacred trust. Finally, they were people of dedication, with an honor mortgaged to no single individual or group, and compromised by no private obligation or aim, but devoted to serving our school and its interests.

Special recognition must be given to Tom Durnford, Jerry Morrow, Max Gerber, Paul Hannahs, and Gus Hoverson. We can never completely express our gratitude for their help, their guidance, and their patience. We wish to thank our parents who have understood the problems and the pressures of a yearbook staff. I also wish to thank the brothers of Alpha Sigma Phi Fraternity. The energy, the faith, the devotion to which they served the yearbook, and me, is truly symbolic of the fraternal spirit of brotherhood and public service.

We were destined by history to be the observer of the Blockhouse's failure, or the cause of its success. History will be the final judge of that assignment, but we do leave with a good conscience. We have tried!

This then is the BLOCKHOUSE, Vol. 45. From the Blockhouse staff,
MAY GOD BLESS.

Russ Johnson

IN MEMORIAM

RALPH C. KENDALL

The rocket, symbol of Toledo athletic teams, was brought to the University through the efforts of Dean Kendall.

No one departs without leaving a void; the empty seat in a classroom or the unoccupied station in the laboratory symbolizing a far greater loss in the hearts and lives of those near and dear.

Sometimes a member of the University family is taken from his task. Then to his colleagues the void may be great because the loss is of skill, talent, experience and dedication in a specialized field of endeavor.

So it was in the unexpected death on March 12, 1967, of Dean Ralph C. Kendall. A man of great ability, he had been a faculty member since 1955 and had been made Dean of Adult and Continuing Education two years later. His talents were recognized by the Association of the University Evening Colleges which made him its National President. At the University he was a member of the Athletic Board of Control, and in the community he served on the Labor-Management-Citizens Committee where he played an important role in maintaining stability and progress in the industrial life of the city.

Dean Kendall, born in Newark, New Jersey, was a graduate of Upsala College, and held the Master of Arts, the Professional Diploma and the Doctor of Education from Columbia University. He was 48 at the time of his death.
